The King's Royal Regt. of N. Y. Papers & Records XXVII-193

P. 213. In the establishment of the post at Deer (Caledon) Id in July, 1778, two companies of the 1st K. R. R. N. Y. took part with 3 companies of the 47th Regt. "About the same time Lieut. William Redford Crawford, who had already served with the Indians, was formally attached for duty in the Indian department in Montreal."

P. 215. In October (1778) Lieuts. Byrne and W. R. Crawford, both former tenants of Johnson, conducted a daring scouting expedition composed of men of his regiment from that post (Sorel), accompanied by some Indians, into the heart of the Mohawk valley, on which they were absent more than a month.

"I have the honor to acquaint Your Excellency that the Detachment of my Regiment that was sent to Johnson Hall from Sorel is returned; they brought off the ruins of my Papers, none of which are legible; my loss in consequence of the destruction of my Papers at the lowest computation (is) twenty thousand Pounds, which is all the Intelligence I have been able to obtain; the Indians, and six Prisoners that they took are gone to Colonel Claus, who, I suppose, will give Your Excellency all the information they have brought."

P. 216. Sir John reported from Lachine on March 8: (1779)

In the same letter he suggested the appointment of Lieut. W. R. Crawford as resident agent with the Indians of the Lake of Two Mountains, but Haldimand promptly replied that "Mr. Crawford, being an active man, I would rather employ him on other service where he may be more usefull."

P. 226 A week later (^{Nov 4} ~~Oct 22~~ 1779) (Sir John) wrote from Oswego
"Lieut. (W. R.) Crawford also returned the day we sailed (Oct. 25) from Oswego from a scout he was sent on with twenty Canada Indians towards Fort Stanwix. They also fell in with four Onidas and one white man, who were sent out from the Fort to Reconnoitre our Camp. The Indians suffered the Onidas to return after being with them one night, but brought the white man who proves to be the person who was at the Head of the Party who took the three men Prisoners from Carleton Island this summer."

P. 266. Major ^{John} Ross arrived at Carleton Island 30 Nov., 1780, with a hundred men. Being favoured with unusually mild weather, by the end of January, 1781, he was able to report that he had made the fort too strong to be stormed and trusted that it would never be surprised while he was in command. Lieut. W. R. Crawford was sent off to reconnoitre the valley of the Mohawk, with which, as a former resident, he was well acquainted. After being absent for a month he returned without having been able to take a prisoner, as all the inhabitants were closely shut up in the different forts. He entered one of these, which had been deserted by all the men, and from the information of some ~~of~~ women concluded that there was little probability of any attack upon Carleton Island that winter.

and burned and that the troops stationed in the other forts along the Mohawk river were greatly dispirited and ill supplied with ammunition. Seventy men had gone off to join Johnson, of whom only two had been taken. Another scouting party under the enterprising and skilful leadership of Lieut. Crawford went out to verify this report. - - - - - Crawford returned in a week with information that he had found Fort Stan-wis in fact evacuated and burned, its timbers still mouldering. A month later Ross reported a fierce combat between a dozen Mississauga Indians, led by David van der Heyden, a halfbreed, and a party of the enemy three times as numerous, in which they had killed a Captain Ellsworth and two of his men and had brought in three prisoners with important papers. Two strong parties were then sent off, composed of soldiers and Indians, one being commanded by Lieut. Crawford, and the other by Lieut. Arden, Ross's adjutant, with instructions to harass the enemy and drive off their cattle - - - - -

Before the end of August Crawford and Arden returned and reported that they had driven a much larger body of militia into their forts and destroyed a mill and other buildings in a settlement fifteen miles below Fort Herkimer, with a considerable quantity of grain and killed many cattle.

the honor of your letter, that there was a probability of making a settlement for Loyalists, Mr. Brass did me the favor to make a tour for three days from ~~Fort~~^{Point} Henry down to the River and brought me a very unfavourable Report of its quality for ten Miles down the River, but afterwards it had a good appearance and believe continues so almost all the way to Canada. I sent him out a second time in Company with Capt. Crawford, when on their Return they brought me a very flattering Report. The good land began about two miles from this Fort up the Lake and in a semi-circle Round it and which they declare is not inferior to the best of the Mohawk Country. I have the honor to enclose you their Report accordingly."

The Indians are Collected at the Island for the Purpose of Purchasing their Land. I hope it will be easily accomplished but I take the liberty to say that (as this place is by far the greatest Resort of the Indians) if Sir John Johnson had placed the Officer of their Department here instead of the Island, it would have pleased them more, and I have desired Capt. Crawford to acquaint Sir John Johnson of this particular.

Captain Crawford's report of his adroit council with the Mississaugas was made in a letter to Sir John Johnson, dated at Carleton Island on Oct 9 (1783)

The Mississaugas all the lands from Tonawata or Onagara River to a river in the Bay of Quinte within eight leagues of the bottom of the said Bay including all the Islands, extending from the lake back as far as a man can travel in a day, the Chiefs claiming the land at the bottom of the Bay could not be got together at the present. I believe their land can be got nearly on the same terms, though this when I see them.

The consideration demanded by the Chiefs for their lands granted is that all the families belonging to them shall be clothed and that those that have not fuses shall receive new ones, some powder and ball for their winter hunting, as much coarse red cloth as will make about a dozen coats and as many laced hats. This I have promised they should receive as soon as I could get it and hope you will send the articles mentioned as soon as convenient.

"The land below the Fort was claimed by old Menas* who commonly resides at Canosadanga. I have agreed for his right with the rest. This man has been of much service to me at this time. He has received a small belt for his family, a large one was delivered for the other Chiefs concerned in the sale, with the usual ceremony to be kept in the nation as a memorial to their children, that they may know what their fathers have done at this time, &c.

The Mississaugas appear much satisfied that the white people are coming to live among them. Three Onondaga Chiefs lately from Montreal were present and approved much of what the Mississaugas had done.

On October 18, Sir John Johnson transmitted Crawford's letter to Haldimand and requested his instructions respecting the deed of cession.

After having received an account of Captain Crawford's successful negotiation with the Indians Ross took immediate steps for a more careful exploration of the tract then purchased and reported progress in the following letters to Captain Matthews and General Haldimand.
